1888.

Oct. 5. So many children seem to be kept away during corn harvest that it would be advisable to have the holidays when harvest commences. Several of the children complain of the coldness of the room. This is not without reason as the stove gives out very little heat.

" 8 Attendance not quite so good.

" 12 The Rev. L. S. Barrett visited 4th & 5th Standards improved in Grammar and Reading 1888.

Oct. 19 Examined Standard II in Dictation and Arithmetic and found slight improvement. The Rev. S. S. Barrett visited on Wednesday.

" 24. Admitted two girls on Monday, Ada & Bertha Shaw. Examined St. I and found improvement in Writing and Reading. This Standard is very fair in Arithmetic

" 30th Rev. L. S. Barrett visited

Nov 2nd Emily Pitchard absent through sickness.