THE MOLYNEUX CHARITY.

On the west wall of the south aisle of the Church there is a Benefaction Board, which records that Lady Diana Molyneux, who died in 1753, left £20 to the poor of Teversal, the principal and interest of which sum are secured to the parish by a bond given by Sir Charles Molyneux.

Sir Charles Molyneux, who died in 1764, by his will left £50 to the poor of Teversal, the management of which sum is vested in the Churchwardens for ever. It appears that part of the interest of this sum is paid by the Carnarvon Estate to the Churchwardens yearly, and that the other part of the interest is paid by the Charity Commissioners through the Union of London & Smith's Bank at Mansfield annually. It is clear, therefore, that the management and distributions of this charity are entirely in the hands of the Churchwardens. The Rector has nothing to do with the matter.

I was glad when they said unto me let us go into the house of the Lord.

TEVERSAL SCHOOL.

The new School was opened by Lady Carnarvon on Monday, February 12th. Readers of this Magazine have no doubt seen an account of the proceedings in the local newspapers. It would be impossible to find space here for all that was said. It is worth while, however, to observe that the Assistant Architect in making his statement remarked that the greatly increased cost of building schools was due to the numerous and stringent requirements of the Board of Education. He did not, however, explain how it is that the requirements of the Board of Education are so far more numerous and stringent in dealing with the Education Committee of the County Council than they are when the building of schools is undertaken by Managers of Voluntary Schools.

At least one thing is certain, and that is that the Managers of Non-Provided Schools, if they are men of business, are able to get building done at a considerably lower cost than is the case with Council Schools.

Among the many wise things said by Lady Carnarvon these words ought always to be remembered:—"One thing I should like to say to the parents of Teversal. I have been very much interested in education all my life, and this I am quite sure of: that to make children take an interest in their work it is most necessary that parents should also take an interest in the work their children are doing by hearing them read, and seeing what they are writing, and finding out how they are getting on with their sums. I am quite sure that for the reason that their parents are interested in it they will be the more interested in it themselves. They cannot all be expected to do it for its own sake, but if they knew that it gives pleasure to those at home they will work with greater zeal."

TEVERSAL OLD SCHOOL.

The children assembled in their old school for the last time for day school lessons on February 12th. Many will feel that the closing of this school is like parting from an old friend, for many generations of Teversal children have been taught in it, and, therefore, many Teversal people must look at the old building with feelings of affection. We hope next month to be able to give what information we have been able to gather from old inhabitants of the parish with regard to its history.

THE MOLYNEUX CHARITY.

In order to avoid misapprehension it may be as well to add a few words to the statement with regard to this charity made in our February number. When Mr. Morgan was Rector both the interest paid by the Carnarvon Estate and the interest paid by the Charity Commissioners were received and distributed by the then Churchwardens. Mr. Barrett, who was Rector from 1887 to 1903, always received and distributed both sums of the interest himself. At Christmas, 1903, and at Christmas, 1904, the Wardens received the interest paid by the Carnarvon Estate, amounting to £1 in each year. This was handed to the Rector, and was distributed by him with their approval. Neither the Wardens nor the Rector were aware of the payment made by the Charity Commissioners into the Union of London & Smith's Bank until a few months ago. There is, therefore, at present an accumulation of the interest, amounting to £4 12s. 4d., now lying at the Bank. This will be distributed in the course of this year.

I was glad when they said unto me let us go into the house of the Lord.

The sum of 15s. collected at the Children's Services between Christmas and Lent has been given to the South American Missionary Society.

On Sunday, March 18th, collections were made on behalf of the Diocesan Church Extension Fund. The money collected amounted to £1 15s.

On Sunday, March 4th, at the Confirmation held by the Bishop of Derby at the Parish Church at Sutton, in Ashfield, the following candidates from Teversal were presented: Mary Ball, Ada Gelsthorpe, Hilda Gent, Elizabeth Saunders.

On Shrove Tuesday, February 27th, a tea was given to the children attending the Teversal Day School by the Dowager the Countess of Carnarvon. By reason of the great fall of snow that happened on that day many of the children were unfortunately stopped from being present at it.

BAPTISM.

April 8. Gertrude Evelyn, daughter of Henry and Esther Shaw.

BURIAL.

April 15. Herbert Reeves, aged 30 years.

Easter Day.—There were 18 communicants at the 7 a.m. celebration, 21 at the 8 a.m., and 19 at the mid-day celebration. The anthem was "Come ye faithful" by E. V. Hall. The manner in which the musical part of the service was performed greatly added to its heartiness and brightness. Mr. Grant, as usual, kindly supplied plants from the Manor for decorating the chancel.

The Easter Vestry meeting was held on Wednesday, April 18th. Mr. Jonathan Piggford was re-elected the parish warden, and Mr. J. Cundwell was again nominated the Rector's warden. Mr. J. Ashmore and Mr. T. Machin were chosen as lay-representatives at the Diocesan Conference. The Church accounts for the year showed a balance of £31 4s. 9½d., out of this balance there has to be paid Mr. Warner's bill for asphaltting the churchyard paths, and the cost of repairing the wall on the south side of the churchyard. Some new hassocks will also have to be provided for the Church. It is proposed to give what can be spared from the remainder of the balance towards the rehangings of the bells.

The collections at the afternoon service from Easter, 1905, to Easter, 1906, amounted to £4 2s. 5d.

Lady Gwendoline Herbert has contributed £5 5s., and Mrs. Drury £1 1s. to the Bell Fund.

Mr. A. S. Buxton, of Mansfield, who examined the bells last month, has kindly given the following information respecting them:—

Bell I. bears the Oldfield founder's mark. The Oldfields appeared in Nottingham towards the end of the reign of Henry VIII. Their first mark was a cross on Calvary with H. O. On each side a star and a crescent. The star and crescent have been supposed by some to have been borrowed from the town seal. The bell bears this mark. There is an inscription in Latin: the translation of it is: "The gift of Roger Grenalgh, Knight." Then follow some letters, the meaning of which has not yet been explained. Then the date, "1551." So that the bells is 355 years old. There is a further inscription, "Blessed be the name of the Lord."

Bells II. and III. are dated 1758, and were given by Sir Charles Molyneux.

Bell IV. is dated 1617, and is, therefore, 289 years old.

Bell V. is dated 1683, 223 years ago.

The following extracts from the Parish Register are interesting, as showing that there were coalpits in Teversal nearly 300 years ago:—

"Anne Willson, ye daughter of John Willson, collier, was baptized ye second day of September, 1610."

"Christopher Hardy, a collier, being slayn in a coal-pitt, was buried ye VIII. of Maie, 1619."

With regard to the burning of coal, Mr. Buxton gives the following information:—

"The first mention of coal is in 1245, but the smoke was supposed to contaminate the air. Edward I., accordingly, forbade its use as fuel. Among the records of the Tower of London a document of Edward 1st's reign was found, wherein was an account of a case of a man being tried, convicted and executed for burning sea coal in London."

The Churchwardens' accounts date only so far back as 1732. There are no entries of special interest. It seems strange to us in these days that money should have been paid for the destruction of foxes. A shilling seems to have been the usual fee for killing a fox. The following entries are curious:—

1808. April 26 Saml. Wilson for bleeding Peggy Parking, 3s.
 May 2. Saml. Wilson for bleeding Peggy Parking, 3s.
 May 2. A journey to Sutton for doctor, 2s. 6d. Were they obliged to call the doctor in because Peggy Parking had been bled too freely? Peggy Parking seems to have cost the parish a good deal of money. On May 7th, there is "a journey to Calor to Mr. Adlinton for Peggy Parking, 3s. 6d."
 May 11. Richd. Woodhead for takeing Peggy Parking to Calor, 6s.
 Jos Gelstrop, 3 weeks and 2 days for Peggy Parking, at 6s. a week, £1.
 July 12. Mr. Adlinton's bill for Peggy Parkin at Raylor, £4 14s. 6d.
 In 1810-1811. Geo. Hill for taking care of Peggy Parkin, 11 weeks at 10s. 6d. a week, £5 15s. 6d. What the end of it was, has not yet been discovered.

THE CHURCH BELLS.

Meetings of the parishioners were held on Tuesday, May 8th, and Wednesday, May 16th, to consider the tenders that had been given for the restoration of the bells. It was decided that the work should be given to Messrs. John Warner & Sons, of 2, Javin Crescent, Cripplegate, London, E.C., whose estimate amounts to £65. They expect to commence the work immediately after Whitsuntide.

CHURCH LADS' BRIGADE.

It was hoped that we should have been able to announce in this month's number of the Magazine that the arrangements for the formation of a Church Lads' Brigade Company have been completed, but a difficulty in finding a competent Drill Instructor has caused delay. We trust, however, that this difficulty may be overcome. It may be as well to state the Church Lads' Brigade requires that the age of recruits should be between 13 and 19 years. It is a principle of the Church Lads' Brigade that each lad should pay a weekly subscription. The Brigade thus makes a protest against treating and bribery, and endeavours to make the lads gentlemen, not beggars. The weekly subscription is usually one penny for those under 16, and twopence for those over that age. The subscriptions of course go towards the expenses of equipment and the maintenance of the Company.

CHURCHWARDENS' ACCOUNTS.

The earliest existing volume of these is headed: "The Accounts of Obediah Pursglove, constable, and Jonathan Cherlsworth, church-warden, for the year 1732." It was remarked in last month's number that there are many payments in the accounts for the killing of foxes. Not a few items record money spent on ale. For example:—

1732.	May 30th.	Ale and Presentments	4d.
	„	September 4th.	Ale and Presentments ...	4d.

The constable had apparently to attend the Sessions twice in the year, and was allowed to refresh himself with ale.

1732.	Dec. 28.	Paid for Ale for the Ringers at Christmas ...	4	0
1739.	Nov. 20.	Ale for the Ringers and Oil for the Bells ...	6	6
1796.	Aug. 20	Ringers' and Singers' Ale ...	12	6

Ale for the Ringers is a regular charge every year. In the last entry quoted the Singers had an allowance. Perhaps this may have been to celebrate a great restoration of the Church, which took place about this time, when the old oak was painted a beautiful blue colour.

The allowance for ale seems to have depended to some extent upon the disposition of the parish officers. Sometimes there are entries like the following:

1739.	March 19th.	Paid for ale at the chusing of new officers ...	5s.
1737.		Paid for ale at the last accounts ...	5s.

This must have been at the Easter Vestry Meetings.

Only a very few of the ale entries have been given as specimens. On going through the records of the 18th century one is brought to the conclusion that nothing ever could be or was done without ale.

We must take leave of the churchwardens' account for this time by concluding with one rather curious entry :—

1737. May 10th. Given to a Madman 1s.

Was this shilling given in the hope that he would buy a razor and rid the parish of the cost of maintaining him ?

On Sunday, May 6th, there was a Church Parade of the Sutton Ambulance Corps, accompanied by the Stanton Hill Brass Band. The collections on that day were given to these.

The following are a few of the entries in the Churchwardens' Account Book, Vol. I. :—

1739. October 1st. Given to a Turkish slave and six more of the company, 1s.

1739. December 3rd. Setting steps in Bear Tree lain, 3d.

„ „ For 5 load of Stones in Newport lain, 1s. 3d.

1745. April 17th. Ale when Wild hill was leavelled, 1s. 6d.

There is a gap between 1745 and 1785. There is no record of any accounts kept during these 40 years, nor of any between 1785 and 1794.

1794. April 27th. Of raising men for the King's Neavy, £14 4s. 4d.

1797. March 21st. Militia expenses, £8 14s. 9d.

These two items occur at the time of the long war with France.

It seems to have been the custom to pay farmers for taking apprentices.

For example :—

1794. March 11th. Mr. Wragg for taking William Parkin as a printis, £1 10s.

No accounts seem to have been kept between 1797 and 1807.

Some readers have expressed a desire to learn all that can be gleaned from the parish records with regard to Peggy Parkin, of whom some mention was made in the May number. No entry of her baptism has been found in the parish register, but among the burials there is this :—

1825. June 27th. Margaret Parkin, aged 60.

This Margaret may be identified with Peggy. She also appears in the following entries in the Churchwardens' accounts:—

			£	s.	d.
1794.	Feb. 29th.	Paid Wm. Ranold for keeping Peggy Parkin 27 weeks at 3s.	4	1	0
		Peggy Parkin 23 at 1s. 6d.	1	14	0
1796.	Jan. 26th.	A bed and one blanket for Peggy Parkin	0	14	6
1807.	Dec. 18th.	Paid Peggy Parkin for (a specified article of needlework)	0	1	6
	April 8th.	Paid Joseph Gelsthorpe for 3 weeks' care and board of Peggy Parkin	0	18	0
1811.	Jan. 16th, 17th, 18th.	Paid John Hewit for takeing care of Peggy Parkin	0	7	0

These are specimens of the entries with respect to Peggy which appear year by year through a long series of years. She must have cost the parish a great deal of money. We will give just two more entries:—

			£	s.	d.
1813.	July 10th.	James Leverton for going in search of Margaret Parkin 2 days and 2 and $\frac{1}{2}$ himself and horse in bringing her back	0	17	0
		Expense attending same	0	11	0
1825.	June 21st.	Margaret Parkin.
		A Shroud	0	3	3
		Coffin	1	0	0
		Ale, etc., at Funeral	0	5	8
		Ringing Bell and Digging Grave	0	3	6

We believe that this records the end of Peggy Parkin.

I was glad when they said unto me let us go into the house of the Lord.

BAPTISM.

July 26. Elizabeth Catherine, daughter of Charles and Sarah Jane Henshaw-Alcock.

The Harvest Thanksgiving Services will be on Sunday, October 7th. The preacher in the morning and evening will be the Rev. F. Gallaher, of St. Michael's, Angel Meadow, Manchester.

On August 8th two men from Messrs. Warners & Sons began the work of rehangng the Church bells. The work was finished on Tuesday evening, August 14th. The bells are now in order for ringing. Whether they are to be rung or not rests with the people of Teversal. It was recommended by Messrs. Warners' man that the striking hammer of the Church clock should be so arranged that it could be removed when the bells were being rung, because there is the risk, if the bells were being rung at the time that the clock was striking, of the tenor bell being cracked. Messrs. Smith & Son, of the Midland Clock Works, Derby, have sent a man to inspect the clock. They will send an estimate of the cost of readjusting the striking hammer, and also of cleaning the clock and supplying galvanized steel wire ropes for the weight.

On Tuesday, August 7th, the children of the Teversal Day School had an outing to Hardwick Park. A tea was provided by Miss A. Clark, of Stanton Hill. Mrs. Wilson, at the Garden House, supplied cups and hot water. Carts for the conveyance of the children were lent by Messrs. J. Caudwell, T. Gent, J. Saunders and F. T. Saunders.
