The Diocesan Registrar of York has sent a list of the Rectors of Teversal taken from Torres's MSS. The parish of Teversal was formerly in the Diocese of York. In the Records of the York Diocesan Registry is the following entry:—"10th June, 1745, Thomas Twells B.A., licensed curate of Teversal, Stipend £26 per annum." It must be borne in mind that money was then four or five times its present value, so that Thomas Twells' stipend would be equivalent to £120, or £130 in the present day. The then Rector of Teversal was Edward Wilson, who held the living from 1715 to 1752. He died and was buried at Bath.

A Meeting for the furtherance of the Missions of the Church in the Colonies and among the Non-Christian Races will be held in the Victoria Hall, Mansfield, on Monday, April 29th, at 8 p.m. The speakers will be the Right Rev. the Bishop of Bunbury, Australia, and the Rev. W. H. Elwin, of the Chekiang Province, Mid China. Admission will be by ticket, to be obtained from the Clergy and C.E.M.S. Secretaries.

May	3.12 inches.
June	3.74 inches.
July	5.09 inches.
Total	11.95 inches.

C. Bray has obtained Second Class Honours in the Cambridge Senior Local Examination. He also passed in Spoken French.

H. A. Tucker obtained Second Class Honours in the Oxford Junior Local Examination.

At the Mansfield Grammar School Athletic Sports, C. Bray won five first prizes and one second. He also secured the championship cup given by Mr. Jyger.

TEVERSAL SCHOOL.

REPORT ON EXAMINATION OF RELIGIOUS INSTRUCTION.

General Report.—Although the School year had been shortened by four months, yet the scholars had gone through the whole syllabus and the teachers offered almost the whole syllabus for examination. In the Repetition and in the New Testament section there was a slight curtailment. The questions put were intended to test not only the memory work, but also the thinking powers of the scholars, and the answering reflects credit alike on scholars and teachers.

Special results in the several classes and subjects:—

	Infant Div.	Stds. 2 & 3.	Stds. 4 to 7.
Repetition of Scripture	V.G.	V.G.	V.G.
Knowledge and Singing of Hymns	V.G.	V.G.	E.

The following extract is from the "Nottinghamshire Inquisitions Post-mortem," published by the Thoroton Society :—

"Let inquiry be made for the King whether Leonard Turner, late of Teyvsale in County Nottingham, collier, otherwise called Leonard Dawson of Teyvsale, collier, did upon 3 February 20 Henry VII. (1504-5) at Teyvsale by force and arms, to wit with staffs and cudgels, lie in wait for a certain John Lee, and then assault and illtreat him with a pike staff, value 4d., and feloniously kill him. And whether Ralph Grenehall of Teyvsale, senior, gentleman, and John Dawson, late of Shirland in the County of Derby, chaplain, knew that the said Leonard had committed the said murder at Teyvsale, and feloniously did aid and abet on the day and year, and in the place aforesaid. In witness whereof as well as the Jurors aforesaid as the said William Pierpoint Edward Stanhop, and Ralph Agard have to this inquisition put their hand and seal, the day, year and place aforesaid."

It seems from this record that there were colliers in Teversal 400 years ago.

The total rainfall for the month of August was 6.07 inches.

TEVERSAL SCHOOL.—NATURE STUDY.

The Notts Education Committee have awarded three Certificates of Merit for Nature Calendars, Nature Drawings, Modellings in Plasticine and Meteorological Records, sent by the scholars and teachers to the Nature Study Exhibition held at Retford on June 27th, 28th, 29th last.

The County Councils' Association have also awarded a Certificate of Merit for the same work, which was sent to the Doncaster Meeting of the Royal Agricultural Society of England.

The following letter was also received from the Director of Education for Notts:—

“DEAR SIR,— Nature Study Exhibition, 1912.

“ I have much pleasure in enclosing herewith the Certificates awarded to your School by my Committee's Examiners, and would like to take this opportunity of congratulating you on the excellent work sent for exhibition.

“ I also enclose a Certificate of Merit which has been awarded by the County Councils' Association to each School which had any part of its exhibit sent on from Retford to the Doncaster Meeting of the Royal Agricultural Society of England, for exhibition in the Nature Study and Rural Economy Section.—
Yours faithfully, B. W. L. BULKELEY.”
