RECTOR'S NOTES.

The Harvest Thanksgiving Services held on Sunday, October 11th, were, as usual, well attended. In the evening the Church was quite full. What a splendid thing it would be if God's House was always as full every Sunday. And why shouldn't it be? We are very grateful to our special preachers for their inspiring messages, and to those who decorated the Church so beautifully and sent gifts of fruit, etc., we also give our hearty thanks. The Choir, with Mr. Bailey at the organ, led the singing finely and rendered a very beautiful anthem, which was much appreciated.

On Sunday, November 8th, we celebrate Armistice Sunday, or (as I prefer to call it) Remembrance Sunday. At the Morning Service there will be a Parade, of which full particulars will be found below. I hope the Church will be full at both Services on that day. It ought to be for all of us a day for united thanksgiving and prayer to God. How greatly we need God's help and guidance in these critical days, and how slow we are to realise it! Oh, come let us worship and fall down and kneel before the Lord, our Maker."

Remembrance Sunday, November 8th.
The following will fall in at the Old Institute, Stanton Hill, at 10 a.m.:—ex-Service men, Teversal and Silverhill Ambulance Division, Sutton Colliery Ambulance Division, Skegby and Stanton Hill Girl Guides. The Teversal Colliery Silver Prize Band will lead the Parade, which will march to Stanton Hill Church to lay a wreath on the War Memorial at 10-15, and then proceed to Teversal Church for Service at 10-55.

We heartily congratulate Miss Tucker and her staff and the children of Teversal School on their magnificent success at the Nottingham Musical Festival held on October 29th. The following is a list of the prizes won:—

1. Vocal Solo for girls under 13 years of age—Eileen Thompson, 86 marks, 1st prize; Edna Wood, 82 marks, 5th prize; Margaret Harpham, 81 marks, 6th prize.

2. Junior Choirs under 12 years of age—Teversal, 88 marks, 1st prize, Clifford Cup.

3. Village Schools—Teversal, 86 marks, 1st prize.
