

1889.

Jan. 25. There is improvement in attendance owing to the weather being so mild. The Rev. L. L. Barrett visited. Admitted a boy from Medon Bank.

Feb 1st There is a marked progress in each subject, especially arithmetic. There has been great backwardness in mental work. We are paying extra attention to that subject. The children are singing in better style too. The Rev. L. L. Barrett has promised to come in to hear them. x Selma Leach has S.I. absent through sickness.

1889.

Feb 4. Poor school owing to snowy weather, only 27 present including a new boy. The Reeves' children (4) not yet returned to school.

8. Equal progress during the week
- 11 Very snowy & stormy only 14 attended. did not mark but kept the children at school and amused them
- 15 Attendance has been poor all the week Average 31.8 The Rev. L. L. Barrett visited on Thursday. Mary A. Evans admitted from Medon Bank