

1889.

Nov. 29. End of 2nd Tr. W on Books 50 as against 57 in the corresponding Tr. of last year Supn. G. Barrett

Dec. 4. Miss T. Barratt visited in the afternoon and examined the girls' needlework. She expressed herself very much pleased.

Dec. 9. The Rev. G. S. Barratt visited

" 13. The Rev. G. S. Barratt has this morning visited the school & examined the Quarterly accounts.

Dec. 13. Poor school all the week owing to the sickness being so prevalent.

Dec. 20. Attendance still very low.
Broke up today for the usual Christmas Holidays

1890.

Jan. 6. Re-opened school this morning only 27 present. The absentees x are suffering from Influenza bad heads, inflamed eyes, x and sores on hands & face.
Sickness is very prevalent & likely to continue.

" 8. The Rev. G. S. Barrett visited & spoke of several of the sick children.