

1882.

February 8. The Rev. F. S. Mayan visited the school this morning & stayed for some time.

As it is inconvenient for Mrs. Mayan to visit the school early in the afternoon, the sewing lesson on Wednesday, will be taken as last lesson instead of the first, according to her wish.

Feb. 9. Grammar Book I in dictation.

Result very fair.

Attendance only 31 this morning owing to the very dry cold weather & the very long distance of the children live fairly from school.

Feb. 13. Attendance rather poor again on account of the very boisterous weather.

Feb. 14. Attendance greatly improved this morning, though several children are still kept away to help in home & farm work.

1882.

February 14. The Rev. F. S. Mayan visited the school. Miss G. & Miss B. Mayan visited the school this afternoon.

I gave Standard II a lesson on islands & volcanoes.

February 15. Took dictation in place of reading in class I.

Took copy books in B. II in place of grammar.

February 20.

The Rev. F. S. Mayan visited the school this morning.

February 21. To day being Ashes Tuesday there was a holiday given in the afternoon.

Feb. 24. Before the new quarter in the evening, a very wet morning, attendance only 25.
