

Dec. 11 Attendance greatly improved this morning, considering the very severe weather. 33 marked present.

12. The Rev. L. P. Moran called this morning. Many infants absent, owing to the very severe weather.

Took dictation in place of geography in Class I this afternoon.

Admitted two new children to day.

13 Another deep snow; only 11 children present this morning; 13 in the afternoon.

14 Attendance rather improved this morning; 25 present, only 5 infants present. A very bitter snowing.

List of "Natural History" lessons for Infants. Fourth week, Dec. 25.

- | | |
|---|-------------------|
| 1 | The Harvest Mouse |
| 2 | The Camel |
| 3 | The Wolf |
| 4 | The Bear |
| 5 | The Crocodile |
| 6 | The Whale |
| 7 | The Kingfisher |
| 8 | The Whale |
| 9 | The Pelican |

List of "Object Lessons"

- | | |
|-----------------|----------------|
| A Book | The Rice plant |
| A Chair | Sugar |
| An Orange | Coal |
| Glass | A Cradle |
| The Living Room | A picture |