

28th Numbers very poor. Did not strictly adhere to time table.

29th Rector called this morning. Was obliged to leave the school in charge of J. H. Hays. Not being well.

30th Notes of Lesson prepared on the "Camel". Notes and lesson much more carefully prepared than previously.

4th Punished several boys for being late. Usual school work.

2nd Rector called this morning. Mrs. Morgan in the afternoon.

9th Very poor attendance today.

12th Took reading lesson with Nov. I. Pupil Teacher working. Meanwhile the 1884

May. writing of Class I.

13th Rev. G. J. Morgan called as usual.

16th Numbers better today than is usual on Friday.

Several children completed their examinations. Specimens of needlework during the week.

19th I called over the names of the children this morning, & found that the Registers had been marked correctly. G. J. Morgan

21st Rector called this morning. Mrs. Morgan came to hear the children sing in the afternoon. Admitted one new scholar.

22nd Numbers very good. The children who were ill with measles are, some of them,