

1887

- Sep. 30th The attendance has been very poor indeed all the week owing to prevalence of measles.
Average attendance for the week 26.
The school is closed to-day for 14 days, by order of the Managers.
- Oct. 17 Re-opened school, 36 children present. Several families still away with measles.
- Oct. 21. Average attendance for week 36.
- Oct. 27 A very wet day, only 23 children present. The attendance still continues very poor owing to sickness.
- Oct. 28 Average attendance for the week 33.
- Nov. 3. A very wet day, and consequently a very poor school.
- Nov. 4 Average attendance 40.

1887.

- Nov. 11. Average attendance for week 44.
- " 18. Average attendance for the week 40.
- " 21 Admitted two new scholars.
- " 25. Average attendance for the week 39.
- Dec. 1. School closed to-day, in consequence of Public-ho.
- Dec. 2. Average attendance for the week 48.
- Dec. 9. <sup>Rev Barrett</sup> The Rector visited the school to-day.
Average attendance for week 35.
- Dec. 16 The attendance this week has been very poor, owing to sickness and severe weather.
Average attendance 28.
- Dec. 28. Average attendance for week 27.
Closed school to day for Christmas Holiday. Gertrude Waters left.
1888.
Jan. 9. Re-opened school after holiday. 40 children present.
The Rector visited the school in the morning.