

1888.

- Jan: 13. Average attendance for week 41.
Jan: 20 Average attendance for week 38.
" 23 The Rector visited the school
Admitted a new scholar.
" 27 Average attendance for week 44.
Jan: 30th Harriet Barke began work in this school as monitor, in place of Gertrude Waters, who left in December, through ill health.
The Rector visited the school this morning.
Feb. 1. Miss Barrett visited the school and examined the needlework.
Feb. 14 Being Snow Tuesday, gave children
a half holiday.
Feb. 15 heavy snow storm; 12 children
present; so dismissed them.
Feb. 20 Weather still continues very severe.
heavy snow; only 13 children present again. To day.

1888

- Feb. 24. The Rector examined the registers.
The attendance has again been very poor this week, the average being only 27. The irregularity of the attendance in this school, due principally to distance at which children live, is a great bar to satisfactory progress.
March 9. The Rector visited the school -
" 16 The attendance is still very low in consequence of severe weather
Average for the week 26.
Mar: 23. The Rector visited the school this morning.
Mar: 30 Being Good Friday, the school was closed; also on Monday. April 2nd
Apr: 6 Average attendance for week 34.
The Rector visited the school.