ST. GEORGE'S MAGAZINE.

Over 30 Christmas gifts were sent to the Editor by the children of Teversal School for distribution among the poor children attending the City Schools.

CHURCH OF ENGLAND HOMES FOR WAIFS AND STRAYS.

The Matron of the Diocesan Home at Newark writes:—"We so much appreciated the kindness of your teachers and scholars on Christmas-day, for there were a few girls to whom no one had sent a gift, so we made into various parcels the articles sent by you, and so delighted the lonely ones."

Teversal Day School broke up for the holidays on Wednesday, December 23rd. There was a Christmas Tree. Lady Carnarvon had kindly provided presents and sweets for each scholar.
