January was the driest month in 1916, and was remarkable for its mild weather. A great contrast to January, 1917.

The total rainfall of 1915 was 31.25 inches, 3.28 inches below that of 1916.

The highest maximum shade temperature was 81 degrees on July 26th, and on August 10th.

On only three days did the maximum shade temperature reach 80 degrees. It was a sunless year of low temperatures.

The lowest minimum shade temperature was 19 degrees on December 20.

The first fall of snow was on November 18th.

BAPTISMS.

- Feb. 9. Private. Florence, daughter of Albert and Bertha Woodward.
 „ 25. Margery, daughter of Harry Samuel and Jane Ellen Johnson.

MARRIAGE.

- Feb. 24. Daniel Mayhew, of Mansfield, to Olive Jane Hibberd, of this parish.

BURIALS.

- Jan. 7. Thomas Moakes, of Tibshelf, aged 59 years.
 Feb. 5. Rosanna Wells, aged 57 years.
 „ 24. Mary Ann Clarke, aged 90 years.

Mrs. Wells, the wife of Mr. V. Wells, who was buried on February 5th, began to reside in Teversal some thirty-five years ago. After living for some years in Skegby, she returned to Teversal about twenty-four years since. She was always a most active and willing helper in all parochial social functions, into which she threw all her energy readily and cheerfully.

Mrs. Clarke, who was buried on February 24th, was a very old resident in this parish. Except that she was slightly deaf, she showed but few signs of her great age, and never altogether gave up her household duties up to the last week of her life. Her many friends will miss sorely her old-world courtesy, and the kindness and sympathy which she always bestowed on all who were in trouble or sorrow.

WEATHER IN TEVERSAL IN JANUARY, 1917.

Total amount of fall of rain and snow, 3 in.

Number of days on which rain or snow fell, 19.

Highest maximum shade temperature, 52 degrees, on the 2nd.

Lowest minimum shade temperature, 20 degrees, on the 30th.

Frost set in on January 5th. Snow fell in the night between January 7th

-8th.

The frost, together with falls of snow, continued until February 12th, when a thaw began. This period was remarkable, not so much for the severity of the frost, for the minimum screen temperature never fell below 12 degrees on February 7th, as for as the number of days in which the thermometer never rose above freezing point, 26 days.

DEATH.

April 23. Privt. Horace Cecil Swallow, K.O.S.B., aged 19 years.
 H. C. Swallow was killed in France whilst joining in a charge on the enemy. He joined the K.O.S.B. in May, 1916, and was in France in less than six months afterwards. He was the first Teversal lad who has lost his life in fighting for his King and Country. His father and his family have the hearty sympathy of all the Teversal people. Their only consolation is that he died doing his duty bravely.

Sergt. J. Grant, 9th Sherwoods, has been promoted C.Q.M.S.

TEVERSALE SCHOOL.

Report on Inspection of Religious Instruction:—

The staff of this small School has the Religious interest of the scholars at heart.

The Devotional Exercises were most reverent, and the singing very good. The Infants answered in a pleasing manner questions on Samuel and the Good Samaritan.

The scholars of the Mixed Department knew with great accuracy the Scripture portions for memory work, and also knew their meaning exceptionally well.

Bible narratives were known, and moral lessons had been well taught.

The Examiner would like to place on record his high appreciation of the excellent work that the staff of this School is doing.

I was glad when they said unto me let us go into the house of the Lord.

June 12. Charles Browett, of Pleasley Hill, aged 12 years.

DEATH.

Frank Hallam was killed in Action in France on May 29th last.

F. Hallam was born in Teversal in September, 1898. At the time of his death, therefore, he had not completed his 19th year by more than three months. He had been in France about eight weeks, and was attached to the 4th Worcesters. No details with regard to his death have been received as yet. His parents have the hearty sympathy of all the Teversal people.

On Sunday, June 10th, there was a Memorial Service for Horace Cecil Swallow, who was killed in action in France on April 23rd last. Thanks to the efforts of the Organist and Choir, it was rendered very impressive.

W. Adams has been promoted to the rank of ordinary Telegraphist, six months before he would in the usual course have been qualified to hold it.

BAPTISM.

Sept. 23. Doris Maud, daughter of George Herbert and Lily Preston.

All Teversal people will feel the deepest sympathy with Mr. John Edward Swallow, of the Grange, Standley, who has learned of the death of his son, John Robert Swallow, through a letter received from a comrade of his son, J. R. Swallow was serving with the Labour Battalion in France. There are no details, except that he was killed by a shell.

It is to be feared that the sad intelligence must be true.
