NOTES AND NOTICES.

REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY, November 10th.

The local branch of the British Legion will attend the special service of Remembrance at 11-0 a.m. on November 10th.

At the 8-0 Celebration the names of those who gave their lives from this parish are brought to remembrance. The day itself is devoted to the recalling of those days of peril of both wars, as with pride and thankfulness we remember those who sacrificed their lives for their brethren, and we dedicate ourselves afresh in the determination by our lives to honour the promises we made, and in our time to make a reality of the principles for which men died. It is to this remembrance and to this dedication that we are called year by year, for otherwise neither parades nor services of remembrance can be of any avail.

Will you please make a special point of being early to this service so that there will be no movement in Church just before 11-0 a.m. The Two Minutes Silence is kept at 11-0 a.m. exactly and the door will be closed for that period.

CONGRATULATIONS.

We are more than a month late in offering to Mr. & Mrs. Ray our congratulations on their golden wedding anniversary. Obviously it is because we did not know about it until after the day. But we would not pass over the event nor fail to add our good wishes in the hope that they may for many years share and continue to enjoy life together.

MOTHERS' UNION.

This edition of the magazine will not reach you in time to remind you of the service on Monday, the 4th, when the Preacher will be the Rural Dean, the Rev. Canon H. N. Hodd, the Vicar of Mansfield. However you will need no reminder as you have the date in your Calendar, and I hope that I shall see you all there. There will be a business meeting after the service.

I must add a word of appreciation to those members of the branch responsible for the Harvest Thanksgiving decorations. Year after year and festival after festival this work is undertaken by members, and I am filled with admiration each time I see it. It is but part of the Church decorating but a part which is devotedly done on behalf of all the members of the branch and our thanks are due to those who undertake it on the different occasions.

OUR SYMPATHY.

Our very sincere sympathy we offer to Mr. Morley and the members of his family on the death of Mrs. Morley. For some time she has been a very great sufferer, though throughout maintaining her spirit and looking forward to the time when she could take her place in ordinary life again. But in the last month her illness was far too much for her body to stand, and she
