DEAR FRIENDS,—

Before this number of the Magazine is in your hands we shall have entered the New Year.

The year 1904 has not been, up to the moment that I am writing these words, marked by any great changes in our parish. By changes I mean removals by death or otherwise of those who have lived long amongst us. And there has been no widespread fatal sickness or other great misfortune.

Let us thank God that we have been spared these troubles, and pray to Him that, if it be His will, we may spend the year 1905 in rest and quietness. It is a great blessing to live in rest and quietness, but, like all blessings, it is attended by the danger of its abuse. And the danger is lest we should be led to take life too easily, to forget our duties and responsibilities. Let each one of us Teversal people ask ourselves this question at the beginning of 1905—Am I taking life too easily? How about my duty to God? Do I give Him the worship due to Him? More especially do I go to His House, the Parish Church, as often as I can, to thank Him and praise Him for all the blessings that He has poured down upon me, and to pray for their continuance to me and to all men?

I am afraid that this is a question that some of us need to ask ourselves very seriously. Then how about our duty to our neighbour? In one point we have neglected this in the past year, and I take the blame of it on myself. I mean in not helping in Mission work. I was anxious before all things that we should get out of debt with regard to our Church expenditure, but now that we are out of debt, and shall, I hope, keep out of debt, we must not forget that we are bound to make others partakers in the blessings which we enjoy. We must not only pray, but also do our part in making God's "Saving Health known to all nations." We must give as freely as we can to Missionary societies. "He that soweth little shall reap little" is true in spiritual as well as in earthly things.

I feel that I have one great reason to be thankful, and that is for the attendance of your children at the Sunday afternoon service. Many of them come with great regularity, some of them from a considerable distance. Their behaviour is, on the whole, good. They join heartily in the service, and their answers to the questions put to them are often excellent. May they continue to worship God and give Him thanks in His House, and to serve Him truly all the days of their life. And may God's blessing be with us all throughout this year, which we cannot begin with a better prayer than that one of the Psalmist's, "Prosper Thou the work of our hands upon us, O prosper Thou our handiwork."

Your faithful Friend,

G. E. EATON.

BAPTISM.

BURIAL.

Dec. 12. William Tucker, infant.

In the year 1904 there have been 16 Baptisms, 3 Marriages and 3 Burials.

The children of the Teversal Sunday School have, with the money collected at the Afternoon Service, bought and presented to the Church an alms-dish. This has been greatly needed, and it is hoped that it will be dedicated and used for the first time on Christmas Day.

On Thursday, December 13th, Mr. Geoffrey Longden very kindly gave a most interesting magic lantern display. The subject was "A Trip Round the Coast of the United Kingdom." The attendance at the entertainment was good. The sum of thirteen shillings was collected.

I was glad when they said unto me let us go into the house of the Lord.

Dec. 15. Robert Felin Henshaw Allcock, son of Charles and Sarah Jane Henshaw Allcock.

Christmas Day.—In decorating the Church the font was undertaken by Miss Piggford; the pulpit, reading-desk and prayer-desk by Miss Hartshorne; the windows by Miss E. Wells and others; and the pillars and Manor pew by Mr. Grant and his assistant. There were 14 communicants at the early celebration and 17 at the mid-day.

The New Year was duly rung in, as well as the condition of the Church bells would allow.

There was a Social Evening at the Iron Hall on December 29th. The proceeds, amounting to rather more than £2, are to be spent in making a presentation to Mr. J. Bailey, as a slight recognition of his services to the Church, and the unvarying kindness and courtesy with which he has behaved to all with whom he has worked for the last 15 years.

On the evening of Monday, January 9th, the Church was broken into. The thief made his entrance through the window in the north aisle nearest the east end. He found his way into the Vestry and, having opened the safe, carried off the money that was therein. The exact amount cannot be ascertained, as, in addition to the Sunday's collection, amounting to 13s., he took the box containing the money collected at the early celebrations, together with the memorandum of account for the same. The total loss, however, cannot be less than £1.

In some of the numbers of last year we gave a list of the Rectors of Teversal from the year 1571. Some mention was also made of the dates of different parts of the Parish Church. It may not be out of place just to glance at the monuments in the Church to see what they can teach us of the history of the parish. The oldest tombs existing in the Church are the two in the South aisle at the back of the Carnarvon pew, in memory of Roger Greenhalgh and Ann his wife. She died in 1538 and he in 1563. Thornton, the antiquary, gives an account of his will. He appointed his body to be buried in the South aisle of the Church near the altar there. He gave £60 to be bestowed in alms and other expenses the day of his funeral, and £40 in deeds of charity the month's day after. He gave to the Church of Teversal £20, and for mending the "high waies" of Teversal £40, and after other legacies to the poor, to all his friends that were at his burial each a black gown, and every yeoman within his house a black coat. To his cousin, Francis Molyneux, and his cousin, Ann Nevill, all his plate. Francis Molyneux and Thomas Lords, Clerk, he made executors, and gave £50 to purchase lands for the Free School at Mansfield, if there be one, or else to his heirs. He gave Teversal, with Woodhouse, Whitboro', Dunsil, Newbould, Stanley, and Stanley Grange, to Francis Molyneux and Elizabeth his wife.

In our next number we will deal with the Molyneux monuments.

I was glad when they said unto me let us go into the house of the Lord.

The Bishop of Derby proposes to hold a Confirmation at Teversal Church on Thursday, March 23rd, at 7 in the evening.

School Concert.—The Teversal School children gave an entertainment on Thursday evening, February 2nd. The programme comprised a performance by the younger children called the "Fairies Visit," in which the part of the Fairy Queen was taken by Hilda Tucker, and that of Herald by Stanley Grant. The other chief characters were:—Tom Thumb, Willie Adams; Bo-Peep, Nellie Mosley; Blue Beard, Freddie Webster; Goody Two Shoes, Nellie Saunders; Dick Whittington, Willie Harpham; Santa Claus, George Seeley; Cinderella, Louisa Marsden; Sleeping Beauty, Maggie Mosley. The elder girls acted a Fairy Play "Cinderella," in which the following parts were taken by the following girls:—Cinderella, Clara Webster; Prince Charming, May Glasby; Fairy Godmother, Dorothy Froggatt; Proudie, Mary Warner; Crosspatch, Lilly Saunders; Herald, Edith Harpham; Sir Hector, Amy Holmes; Sir Holiday, Maggie Mosley.

The following Teversal boys took part in a humorous sketch, entitled "The Parish Council":—J. Cameron, T. Gelsthorpe, J. Grant, N. Machin, R. Mosley, H. Parsons, A. Parsons, A. Sharpe, G. Warner, A. Wells.

There was a large audience, who thoroughly appreciated the entertainment. It is impossible to speak too highly of the children's performance, or of the patient training which brought them to such perfection. The net proceeds amounted to £6 7s. This will be spent partly in giving the children a treat, and partly in buying prizes to be awarded for regular attendance at School.

On Tuesday, February 21st, a lecture on "Ireland" was given by the Rev. F. Gallaher, M.A., of Padiham, Lancashire. Mr. Geoffrey Longden kindly illustrated 60 views with his magic lantern. The lecture was greatly enlivened by Mr. Gallaher's sparkling wit and never-failing stock of humorous anecdotes, which kept the audience in a continual roar of laughter. The proceeds amounted to £2 0s. 6d. This, added to the sum of £2 1s. 8d. already in hand resulting from entertainments, makes the sum of £4 2s. 2d., which it is proposed to spend in buying Psalters and Hymn-Books for the use of the choir.

On Thursday evening, February 23rd, Mr. I. Bailey, the organist of Teversal Church, was presented by the choir with a ring in testimony of their appreciation of the zeal and self-devotion with which he has discharged his duties for the past fifteen years.

I was glad when they said unto me let us go into the house of the Lord.

DIOCESAL SUNDAY, MARCH 19TH.

The collections for the Diocesan Fund amounted to £1 3s. 5d.

Confirmation.—On Thursday, March 23rd, the Bishop of Derby held a Confirmation at Teversal Church. There were 7 candidates from Skegby, 13 from Stanton Hill, and 9 from Teversal. The candidates from Teversal were: Samuel Glasby, Raynor Hugh Piggford, Edith Bentley, Agnes Devonport, Millicent Annie Froggatt, Harriet Gertrude Frost, Annie Glasby, Mary Glasby, Mary Matilda Warner. The Bishop delivered two very impressive addresses. He pointed out to the candidates that there might be bad as well as good reasons for being confirmed, and that the best of all reasons was a desire to be strengthened to lead a godly life. He reminded them that there was no such a thing as standing still in their Christian life. They must either go back or forward, and that surest means of going forward was to be regular—regular in their prayers, regular at Church, and regular in going to the Holy Communion. And he explained that by being regular communicants he meant that they should fix in their minds a certain number of times in the year in which to communicate, and keep to that number. The text which he gave them to remember was Psalm cxv. 13: "He shall bless them that fear the Lord, both small and great." Turning to the congregation, he reminded all parents of their responsibilities towards their children, and of the difficulties they threw in the way of their children by their indifference towards, or neglect of, religious duties. He said that there were three classes of parents—those who discouraged their children from going to Church or to the Holy Communion—a small number, happily; secondly, those who said, "Please yourselves: go if you like"; and thirdly, those who said, "Come with me." He lamented the falling-off in these days of the attendances at the morning services on Sundays, and the tendency towards giving only the lag end of the day to the worship of God. And he reminded his hearers that although they might have good reasons for not going to Church in the morning, still they ought to be sure that the reasons were good, and such as would stand the scrutiny of God's all-seeing eye.

The Church.—In the transactions of the Thornton Society there is published a paper, read by the Rev. J. Standish on the occasion of the visit of the society to Teversal Church on June 14th, 1904. He is of opinion that the doorway on the south-west is Norman in its origin, but that from the irregular way in which the stones are worked in as it now stands it is probable that it once stood somewhere else—possibly at the west end of the Church before the building of the tower. The peculiarity of the tower is that it has been built over the last arch of the nave, as may be plainly seen in the belfry. In the north wall of the chancel is a beautiful lancet window, which is covered on the inside by one of the Molyneaux monuments.

The east window is of three lights of the Perpendicular period, and the windows in the south wall of the Church, he thinks, belong to the same period.

In the south aisle is a window above which are the initials "I.M." and the date 1684. Next to this window is an early Decorated window of three lights.

Two stones on the outside of the Church, bearing foliated crosses, are worthy of notice. One is between the windows of the south aisle; the other is over the west window of the south aisle. The oaken door and the Church door-key are very ancient. The upright stays on the door have the ovolo moulding, which, in stone work, would indicate the Early English period. All the wood-work of the Church is, he thinks, of a late period of the 17th century, and this is certainly the case with the canopied pew known as the Carnarvon pew. In the Registers of the Church is the following curious entry:—

“John Molyneaux, of Teversal, Esquire, and Mrs. Lucy Hesketh, of Rufforth, in the county of Lancaster, were maryed by Richard Standish, Justice of the Peace and Quorn, in the county of Lancaster, at Wrightinton, on the eighteenth day of April, 1655, in the p'sence of John Hardinge, Margaret Breaves, Geo. Ashbury and Hen. Houghton. Beinge before married at Rufford, aforesaid, in the parish of Croston and county aforesaid, about ten o'clock of the same day, by John Seddon, Minister of Penwortham, in the county aforesaid.”

This was at the time of the Protectorate of Oliver Cromwell, when religious marriages were forbidden. It is evident, however, that this couple went through the religious ceremony secretly before their civil marriage before the magistrate.

The net proceeds of the Social on the evening of February 24th amounted to £2 10s. This will go to the fund for lighting the Church.

On Shrove Tuesday, March 7th, there was a Social Evening. The profits were £3 6s. 9d.

I was glad when they said unto me let us go into the house of the Lord.

April 24. Samuel Thomas Newbould, of the parish of Tibshelf, to Florrie Holmes, of this parish.

EASTER DAY.

The Church looked beautifully bright on Easter Day with the plants in the chancel, for which, together with most of the flowers with which the windows and pulpit were decorated, we have to thank Mr. Grant, the gardener at the Manor. There were 18 communicants at the 7 o'clock celebration, 22 at the eight o'clock celebration, and 21 at the mid-day celebration. The Anthem, "Christ is risen" (Simper), was admirably sung by the choir.

THE EASTER VESTRY MEETING

was held on Wednesday evening, April 26th. The total receipts from collections since last Easter, including a balance of 12s. 5½d. from last year's accounts, amounted to £48 19s. 7d. The expenditure of this sum was as follows:—

	£	s.	d.
Collections at Early Celebrations, given to the poor	...	3	17 5
Given to Hospitals and Diocesan Fund	...	3	4 5
Church Expenses	...	30	14 3
Total	...	£37	16 1

Leaving a balance of £11 3s. 6d.

It is greatly to be regretted that more of the parishioners do not attend the meeting, in order to inspect the Church accounts. Mr. J. Piggford was re-elected as the Parish Warden, and Mr. J. Caudwell was re-appointed Rector's Warden. Mr. T. Machin and Mr. J. Ashmore were re-elected as Sidesmen, and the same two gentlemen were chosen as Representatives at the Diocesan Conference.

Mr. Alfred Greenalgh, of Carr Bank, Mansfield, who was buried in this churchyard on August 14th, was a collateral descendant from the Greenalgh family who formerly owned Teversal. In the latter half of the 16th century Roger Greenalgh died without heirs male, and by the marriage of one of his daughters with a member of the Molyneux family the estate passed into that family. In 1812, Sir Charles Molyneux, the last baronet, died. He left his estate at Teversal to his niece the Lady Henrietta Howard, who afterwards married the grandfather of the present Earl of Carnarvon, and who will be remembered by many now living in Teversal.

On Wednesday, August 23rd, a Garden Fête was held in the grounds of the Manor, by permission of the Dowager the Countess of Carnarvon, in order to raise funds for lighting the Church and rehangng the bells. The Sale of Work, which was held in the billiard-room, was opened by Lady Louisa Egerton. The helpers in the parish and from outside were so many and so energetic that there is the danger lest in enumerating them some names should be unintentionally left out. It seems best, therefore, to thank them heartily, all in a body, for their activity and kindness. Nor must we forget, in returning thanks, those who had the trouble of preparing the Manor and its grounds for the fête. The pecuniary result was most satisfactory, the total receipts from all sources amounting to £55 3s. 3d.

On Sunday, October 1st, and on the first Sunday in every month until further notice, there will be service, with a sermon, at 2.30. This service is not in the place of the usual evening service at 6.30, which will also be held. The afternoon service is for the convenience of those who find a difficulty in attending the evening service. The children of the Sunday School who attend it will receive the same marks as they do for attending the children's service.

It may be remembered that reference has been made more than once in the number of this Magazine to our parish registers. They begin in 1571 and are continued, with the exception of some irregularity at the time of the Commonwealth, to the present day. Some of the entries contain some rather curious information, and it may interest some of our readers if some of them are given from time to time in this Magazine. This month we will take a few from the 3rd volume, which begins at the year 1716. In this 18th century we find the names of Ashmore, Gelstrop (so spelt then), and Jacklin, whose descendants are still living amongst us. Beginning with the burials we find:—

Jan. 26, 1718. Diana Lady Molyneux, wife of Sir Francis Molyneux, died at London Jan. 8, buried in the vault of the family.

1725, May 18. Mr. Roger Molyneux, a deaf gent. from his infancy, yet able to consider in a language he had formed by his uncommon sagacity.

1728, Jan. 26. Madam Lucia Lisle, daughter of Sir Francis Molyneux, and relict of Charles Crook Lisle, Esq. She died at London, Jan. 13, and laid in the vault of the family.

1743, Sept. 11. Mr. Richard Marriot, servant to Sir Francis, Sir John, Sir Francis and Sir Charles Molyneux successively; served that family in different offices for about 70 years. Near 85.

1746, Feb. 21. Widow Wallender, of the Woodnook, lost in a cold stormy night, Feb. 15, aged 70.

1725, Dec. 28. The Rev. Mr. Edward Wilson, upwards of 36 years rector of Teversal, died at Bath, and was buried in the Abbey Church there. He built the present Rectory House.

1764, Jan. 7. Willm. Lacock, being found dead in a dlose, aged 71.

About the middle of this 18th century the names of Leverton and Roper appear in the register.

RECEPTION.

- Oct. 1. John, son of John and Emma Glasby.

BURIAL.

- Oct. 14. James Hardy, from East Kirkby, aged 68 years.

Sunday, October 15th, was the day of thanksgiving for the harvest. The sermons were preached by the Rev. F. Gallahén, of St. Michael's, Angel Meadow, Manchester. It was feared that by reason of the lateness of the season there would be a difficulty in getting flowers for decorating the Church, but the judgment of all who saw them seemed to be that the Church had never looked more beautiful. It is needless to say more about the musical part of the service, then that the organist and choir did, as they always do, their full share in making the services bright and hearty. The anthem was, "Praise the Lord, O Jerusalem" (Mauder). The collections, amounting to £3 16s. 9½d., will be divided between the Mansfield Hospital and the Royal Agricultural Benevolent Institution.

On the first Sunday in every month, until further notice, there will be service at 2.30 in the afternoon, as well as at 6.30 in the evening.

Extracts from the Register of Burials.

- 1767, Dec. 25. Thomas Burton, of Hucknell, killed in a coalpit.
- 1776, between August 28th and December 8th. the burials of seven children are recorded in succession; and there is a marginal note: —“ These seven children died of the small-pox.”
- 1794, Nov. 18. Thomas Walter, aged 14. “ Mem. : This youth, as he was at work in a quarry near Norwood was unfortunately crushed by a sudden fall of a quantity of earth, and expired after lingering near two days. Coroner’s inquest: ‘ Accidental Death.’ ”
- 1795, Dec. 31. Benjamin Gelstrup, aged 17 years. “ Mem. : This youth returning to Skegby from his father’s house at Whiteboro’ in the evening of the 28th in company with his brother, was suddenly taken ill in the field and almost immediately expired.”
- 1798, Oct. 31. Thomas Parkin, aged 10. “ Mem. : This youth was unfortunately killed by a kick from a vicious horse, which his master, Thos. Hill, was leading to Pleasley Fair. After receiving the blow on his side, which knocked him down, he arose, and opening a gate hard by for his master to pass thro’, he again fell and instantaneously expired. Coroner’s inquest: ‘ Killed by Accident.’ ”
- 1796, Oct. 1. Robert Moakes, aged 37. “ Mem. : The life of Robert Moakes was terminated by the following melancholy accident. The air shaft at Shilo coalpit having thro’ carelessness caught fire, various means were used to extinguish it. And during one attempt Robert Moakes, called to be drawn up from the bottom, but the sulphur overpowered him within a few yards of the pit’s mouth, and immediately falling, from having neglected to fasten himself, his neck was dislocated and other parts of his body dreadfully bruised. Coroner’s inquest: ‘ Accidental Death.’ ”

I was glad when they said unto me let us go into the house of the Lord.

The Rector would like to get together a Men's Bible-class to meet on a Week-day evening. The object of it is to get a better understanding of the Bible generally, and to explain, if possible, any Scriptural difficulties that may occur to any of the members. It is hoped that the subjects discussed may be such as to interest men as well as boys. All over 14 years of age are invited to join the class. The first meeting will be on Wednesday, December 6th, at 7, in the Schoolroom. Information as to the class can be obtained from Mr. Joseph Wells, junr., or from the Rector.

Lady Carnarvon has very kindly handed to the Rector £5 to pay for the School treat, which was given last July. She expressed the wish that the balance remaining over the cost of the entertainment should be spent in buying books for the School Library. Some fresh volumes have been ordered.

On Monday, November 6th, there was a tea in the Schoolroom, with the object of raising money in order to buy material for a Church Working Club. Provisions were given by the following ladies:—Mrs. Drury, Mrs. Devonport, Mrs. Glasby, Mrs. C. Henshaw, Mrs. J. Henshaw, Mrs. Lewin, Mrs. Machin, Mrs. W. Mosley, Mrs. Parsons, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Warner, Mrs. P. Webster, Mrs. F. Webster, Mrs. Wells, Mrs. J. Bailey, Miss P. Caudwell. The following gave money:—Miss Caudwell (Norwood), Mr. J. Caudwell, Miss Clarke, Mrs. M. Froggatt, Mrs. Gent, Mrs. Grant, Miss Hartshorne, Miss Leverton, Mrs. J. Mosley, Mrs. Piggford, Mrs. Round, Mrs. Simpson, Mrs. Sharpe, Mrs. F. T. Saunders. The total amount made was £2 7s. 2d. Mrs. Lawton, of the Firs, has kindly contributed £1 1s. to the fund, so that there is altogether £3 8s. 2d. now in hand.
