

THE FIRS
Teversal Cottage Home

FOR

Feeble and Convalescent Children.

MANAGER.

COUNTESS DOWAGER OF CARNARVON.

RULES & REGULATIONS.

This house is intended for the benefit of feeble children under 10 years of age—not requiring surgical treatment, or suffering from infectious disease.

A charge of 5s. a week is made for each child.

All payments must be made in advance.

No child can be admitted unless provided with two good changes of clothes, a brush and comb, and two pairs of leather boots or shoes.

It is imperative that every child should come perfectly clean, and no child will be kept who does not arrive in a satisfactory state in this respect.

Applications to be addressed and payments made to

THE MISTRESS,

THE FIRS,

TEVERSAL, MANSFIELD.

These Rules are subject to such alterations, from time to time, as circumstances may require.
