

TEVERSAL MANOR, near Mansfield, Notts.

The House is a modern mansion, containing six reception rooms, ten best bed-rooms, and bath room; five servants rooms in the house, with three mens' rooms over the stables; and good offices and cellars. It stands in its own grounds, which include: three old-fashioned terraces, good kitchen and flower gardens. The stabling has 8 stalls and two loose boxes, good carriage house, harness and mess room, coachman's cottage, and 2 rooms for stalls. A squash racket court, a swimming bath, and good cricket ground can be included. If taken to be kept in order by the tenant. Shooting over 2700 acres including woods, keeper's cottage, and kennels. Shooting may be let separately if desired. House furnished or unfurnished. Some land may be added if desired. The water is of the very best, and from a public service. The sanitary arrangements were constructed about 5 years ago. Gas is laid into the house. Adjoining Church, Post Office, Telegraph Office at Teversal Railway Station half mile off. Good roads. (1½ miles from Skegby Station, G.N.R. 3 miles from Sutton, Mid. and 3 from Tibshelf, G.C., 4 miles from Mansfield, 2 from Hardwick Hall.) Apply to Mellors, Basden & Mellors, Estate Agents, 1, King John's Chambers, Nottingham.